Thiru. Vairamuthu (Vairamuthu Ramaswamy) is an acclaimed award winning Tamil poet, lyricist and author with more than 6000 songs to his credit. He has been awarded the National Film Award 7 times in the Best Lyricist category. Adding to his accolades, he has also been the recipient of Kalaimamani Award, Padma Bhushan, Padma Shri and Sahitya Akademi Award for his novel "Kallikattu Ithikassam" as well as the Tamil Nadu State Government Award thrice for his contribution towards Tamil Literature.

Thiru. Vairamuthu published his maiden anthology "Vaigarai Megangal" during his 2nd year of B.A. and it was prescribed for study in Women's Christian College. Thus, he achieved distinction of a student poet whose work was taken into curriculum while he was still a student. His second work, Thiruththi Yezhudhiya Theerppugal, in pudhu kavidhai form was published in 1979. He made his film debut in the succeeding year when he set lyrics for Bharathiraja's Nizhalgal.

His dream is to hold aloft the language and culture of Tamils in the world. Similarly, his works have the underlying themes of humanism transcending barriers of space and race. He is the Tamilnadu President of Indo-Russian Friendship Society. In response to invitations of various Tamil groups, he visited the U.S.A, United Kingdom, Canada, Hong Kong, China, Singapore, Malaysia, Thailand and Sri Lanka.
